Objectives

To teach that the Lord Jesus Christ is the Son of God who came to earth to die for our sin.

To teach the necessity of being born again by the Spirit of God by receiving the Lord Jesus Christ.

To teach that growth in the Christian life depends upon fellowship with God through Bible reading, prayer, and service.

To teach that the Bible is the only Word of God. It is practical and important.

To teach the application of Biblical principles to every part of daily life.

To teach the Christian social graces.

To stress the urgency of world missions.

To teach the student to get along with non-Christians and with Christians who hold differing views.

To integrate subjects with the Bible.

To teach that God is the creator and sustainer of the universe and of man.

To teach the student to apply himself to his work and to fulfill his various responsibilities.

To teach the student to work independently and cooperatively.

To teach the student to think for himself and to stand up for his personal convictions in the face of pressure.

To develop the creative skills of the student.

To develop an appreciation of the fine arts.

To develop effective communication skills of the student.

To teach the knowledge and skills required for future study or for occupational competence.

To develop desire and discretion in wholesome physical and mental recreation.

To teach our American heritage and the current problems facing our country and the world.

To show the student his present civic responsibilities and to prepare him for adult responsibility as a Christian citizen of our nation.
